1982-2005-- OUR 23rd YEAR! 214-363-0044 www.unclecalvins.org

Jul 01 Closed for Independence Day

Jul 08 ($15/18) Woody Guthrie Fest Preview

More than 50 acts will perform next week in the 8th annual Free Woody Guthrie Festival in Okemah OK. These four are a sampling of the variety of musical styles that you'll find there. We are closed next week so that our volunteers and audience can attend this folk music extravaganza. The festival exists to further the music of Woody and to support the works of the Huntington's Disease Foundation. Just three hours away from Dallas, Okemah is the place to be next week. Check out the fest and the foundation at

TERRI HENDRIX, WITH LLOYD MAINES

Her exuberance is contagious! Terri's pop-folk songs are built on insight and compassion framed with wit and intelligence, and furnished with a passionate upbeat persona. Lloyd is a masterful guitarist on 6 strings, Dobro and pedal steel. Together they have become Texas' hottest act and one of our very faves. Tonight they anchor our show with a full set. terrihendrix.com

RONNIE ELLIOTT If his name is missing from your household word list, just dig the musical conscience of Steve Young. Recall Butch Hancock's straight forwardness. Think of Woody's 'everyman's' outlook.

Play a Johnny Cash spiritual. Read Leonard Cohen's prose. Remember Phil Ochs' protest songs. Now add Ronny's name. ronnyelliott.com

KAREN MAL A writer of superb contemporary folk songs, Karen won the Wildflower Festival's National Songwriter Competition and is a finalist in both the Kerrville and the South Florida Fests New Folk contests. With her lithe, lilting soprano, Karen is also gaining recognition for her singing, which she accompanies on mandolin and guitar. Along with her contemporary works, Karen's repertoire includes Celtic influenced originals. karenmal.com

MAGPIE Over their 30 years of performing and 12+ albums, Terry and Greg are a cornerstone of the modern folk music scene. While their stylings encompass jazz & blues, Scots airs, ragtime, classical country, and swing, Magpie's songs are deeply immersed in social concerns of peace, justice, the environment, civil rights and war. They've won 2 Wammies and have recorded with Kim & Reggie Harris and with Pete Seeger. magpiemusic.com

Jul 15 Closed for Woody Guthrie Festival

Jul 22 Texas Gypsies

Dust off your dancin' shoes and shake a leg, it's gonna be a swingin' night tonight! This quartet is at the center of the revival of the listenable and danceable

Southern Western swing music of Bob Wills as well as the hot jazz stylings of Django Reinhardt and Stephane Grapelli. But wait! That's not all. The Gypsies, with two Grammy winning players (guitars, violin, bass), also have deep roots in modern pop, folk, rockabilly, Dixieland, and country. Their original works are a blending of all of these, resulting in exotic rhythmic toe tappers and delightfully captivating and energizing songs. We'll keep the back 40 cleared for dancing!

Jul 29 Tim Grimm

A newcomer to us, Tim is quickly rising to national prominence for both his writing and his performance. From across the country, Tim has garnered prizes as the winner of: Best Traditional Folk Album; Best

Traditional Folk Song; Best Discovery in Roots Music; and Best of Indy Songwriter. His native Indiana hill country roots influence his music as much as old English ballads, bluegrass and acoustic blues. Drawing comparisons to Woody Guthrie, Johnny Cash and Bruce Springsteen, this musical storyteller/actor writes in rich descriptive details, with warmth and intimacy, of his own journey back to the land, describing those who never left it, honoring those who came before. Join us in welcoming this soon-to-be famous talent to our family of performers. timgrimm.com

Opening: TBA

Aug 05 Emilie Aronson

Our most featured local performer is a perennial favorite who reminds us of the depth and breadth of original folk music. A winner of the prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival's New Folk Competition, Emilie's modern folk songs have flavors of blues, bluegrass and rock. But be warned: she's wicked with puns and they often find their way into her humorous tunes! There is also a lot of compassion and insight to be found in her original songs, which she performs in a clear and confident voice accompanied by deft guitar playing. Emilie's memorable concerts are exciting, engaging and uplifting and we guarantee you'll soon be singing along and will quickly learn why Emilie is our most featured performer.

Opening: Bill Nash

Great guitar & sensitive songs from our very own

Aug 12 ($12/15) The Gillette Brothers

Their lifelong interest in cowboyin' led Pipp & Guy down that trail for real. From their East Texas ranch, the brothers continue a study of the daily toils and social events of the early Western settlers. Those studies have revealed the roots of Scottish and Irish music in the historic trail songs of the cowboys and have also shed light on the dawn of country blues. Not only scholars of this traditional music, the Gillette Brothers are also interpreters, writers and performers of songs inspired by its history. Guy & Pipp are regular performers at the Elko, Stegall and Lomax Gatherings where they are known for their songs, spoken tales and poetry, banjo, guitar, and bones playing—and Chuck wagon cooking!

Opening: Jeff Plankenhorn

Quite possibly the best Dobro player in Texas!

Aug 19 Tom Kimmel

From the romantic to the melancholy to the humorous, a spiritual light illuminates Tom's poignant songs and poetry. His melodies will last you a lifetime and dozens of stars have recorded his pop, country, folk and gospel-soul songs including Linda Ronstadt, Johnny Cash, Shawn Colvin, Randy Travis and Dolly Parton. With over 25 years of songcrafting under his pen, Tom's works are also featured in numerous movies and TV shows and he's toured worldwide with Nanci Griffith. A nimble guitarist with a warm and engaging presence, Tom is sure to become a favorite of yours. tomkimmel.com

Opening: Robin Hackett

Smoky smooth voice on jazzy originals.

Aug 26 ($12/$15) Albert & Gage

Beautifully sweet vocal harmonies, groove rhythms, instrumental prowess, and solid songwriting—that's just a tiny part of this dynamic duo's magical appeal.

Christine's stunningly gorgeous and flexible voice shimmers and dances among Texas country folk and French torch songs with easy elegance. Chris is a powerhouse musician excelling in guitar, piano and accordion as he moves the grooves from waltzes to rock and pop with a dynamic flourish. Their sweet ad lib banter is engaging and often hilarious. Absolutely a favorite of ours and sure to be yours as well!

Opening: Mike Austin
Cool and eccentric clarinet and vocals.

Sep 02 Closed for Kerrville Wine & Music

Sep 09 David Lamotte

We love this reviewer's quote about David: "He sings songs from his heart, from the heart of the North Carolina mountains, with style, wit, and old fashioned charm." We'd also add that David's songs have lyrical integrity, are emotionally complex, thoughtful, hopeful, energetic and uplifting. David is a spiritual seeker with a contagious humor and a soft soulful voice, somewhat reminiscent of an early James Taylor's sincere delivery. If all that sounds too good to be true, add in David's top notch guitar playing, influenced by rock, blues and bluegrass, and his compassionate hope and realistic idealism and you'll find that this delightful artist is truly that good. Opening: Andrew Tinker

Kerrville-Collegiate Songwriter Winner

Sep 16 Robin Greenstein

"Accousticness" is the term Robin applies to her music. It blends the styles of folk, pop, rock, blues, country and jazz and whatever else happens to find its way into her consciousness. Robin is a clinician-performer for Martin Guitars as well as an adept banjo player and her original songs have lyrical sophistication. With a stunningly powerful vocal that will remind you of Bonnie Raitt or Linda Ronstadt, Robin brings a program of wide interest music where you'll hear a jazz standard next to a banjo dance tune or an Afro-American folk song. She tours Europe annually and plays festivals including Kerrville, Falcon Ridge, NJ Folk and Napa Valley. But her favorite gig was singing the National Anthem at Madison Square Garden for her beloved New York Knicks! robingreenstein.com

Opening: Jed & Kelly
Cool harmonies on original country-folk.

Sep 23 Dana Cooper

There's an intense passion in Dana's songs, in both the lyric and in the performance. Evocative poetic songs of romance and the pleasure of living a life rich with emotion fill Dana's folk-rock repertoire. Maura O'Connell, Susan Werner and Christine Albert have all recorded his songs. He toured for several years with Shake Russell which yielded 5 albums, and has recorded 5 solo albums as well, every one of them receiving critical acclaim. Dana has also played on Austin City Limits and has received awards and nominations as Male Vocalist of the Year and for Best Pop Album of the Year. We agree with The Acoustic Guitar Magazine: "His heartfelt lyrics aim to reconcile the heart and mind in everyday life. His sense of melody is unique and he has a voice that could melt ice caps."
