Sep 28 ($12/$15) The Quebe Sisters Band

With a unique combination of three championship fiddles and thrilling three part close harmonies, these young sisters are amazing audiences countrywide. Specializing in western swing, ala Bob Wills, they also bring in hot Django jazz, swing-bop and western classics. Mentor/guitarist Joey McKenzie and bassist Drew Phelps join in to have you hopping.

Opening:

Lenore

Positive and fun songs presented with elegance.

Oct 19 ($15/$18)

David Olney

The intensity in David's highly literate, dramatically spectacular short story songs and achingly empathetic love anthems is both compelling and spine chilling. His impassioned voice, raw boned on the bluesy and gritty dark-edged narratives of the human condition, is suede comfortable on full hearted songs of romance. Tonight we celebrate the release of David's new CD "One Tough Town", a bare fisted storytelling excursion into a surreal and intriguing universe, portrayed in an absorbing atmosphere of sophisticated songwriting. Townes got it: "Dave is one of the best songwriters I've ever heard—and I mean that from the bottom of my heart." We agree.

Special Guest:

Amy Space

A spectacular performer of modern folk songs, she'll return May 9th with her band.

Oct 26 ($12/$15)

Kerri Arista - Eric Hansen

With a captivating warm and mature voice matched by dexterous guitar playing, Kerri delivers her songs of love, hope and acceptance in beautiful melodies. Her confessional songs have a realistic, yet positive and reassuring outlook. While listening you may be reminded of Janis Ian or Shawn Colvin. Kerri is working on her third CD. We recommend you get them all.

Kerri Arista

kerriarista.com

Eric Hansen

Folk-pop songs rich with thoughtful and inspirational outlooks, passion and humor brand Eric's music. Over the years, he's taught music to underprivileged children, performed in hospitals, toured the US and Europe as a stage actor/musician, recorded 5 albums, is a soap opera star (Guiding Light, Search of Tomorrow, One Life to Live) and finds time to teach guitar and voice to private clients. Whew! We're glad he has time for us, too, and you will be also!

It's Uncle Calvin's 25th Anniversary

We're having a party and you're invited! November marks our 25th anniversary with multiple act shows each Friday, special guests and Calvin's souvenirs. The first show on Nov 2nd will feature some of the performers who've been with us since the start and the 1982 price of $2! Sure, we'll gladly accept additional donations at the door. We'll have door prizes, T-shirts, a CD of previous performers, and each Friday's show will have its own unique coffee mug. Check our web site for discount ticket/souvenir packages. Come party with us!

Nov 02 ($2) 25th Anniversary Show

Emilie Aronson

Reining Queen of Dallas Folk Music, Emilie holds the title for most performances here (67). She enchants us with her original songs of insight and punning wit.

Lu Mitchell & Catch 23

lonestarwebstation.com

The Grandmother of Dallas Folk Music, over the years our second most featured performer, continues to delight with zany and upbeat songs of satire and humor.

Sam Swank

Sam's wowed us many times and is THE go-to guy for many performers wanting a studio and concert guitar playing side (Olivia Newton-John, Ray Wylie Hubbard, Johnny Reno...) or lessons in acoustic fingerstyle classical, rock, blues and bluegrass. Tonight he's ours!

Bill Nash

This faithful volunteer is a wizard of fingerpicked guitar, an award winning songwriter (Kerrville, Wildflower, BW Stevenson) and a charming singer.

putsiecat.com

Julie McClain

A long time volunteer (and John Denver fan) who thrills with songbird-like singing and evocative lyrics in traditional flavored originals and faves.

Nov 09 ($20/$25) 25th Anniversary Show

This legendary duo's shows are magical with elegant flowing harmonies and a repertoire from historic balladry, old timey music and modern styles. Steve's "Darcy Farrow" is a classic, recorded by dozens, known by millions. Their guitar, banjo, and concertina instrumentality is outstanding.

Steve Gillette & Cindy Mangsen

compassrosemusic.com

Albert & Gage

albertandgage.com

Jazzy folk, country and rock, glorious harmonies, marvelous instrumental work and sweet romantic songs framed with loving humor and joyful enthusiasm are at the core of these, our longtime friends.

Pierce Pettis

Delivered in a soulful baritone, optimism and Deep South heritage influence Pierce's folk, blues and rock songs. One of modern folk's most important artists, his guitar playing is adroit, often percussive and complex.

piercepettis.com

Tom Kimmel

There is an illuminating spirituality in Tom's pop-country-folk and gospel-soul songs that will last you a lifetime. His poetry is engaging and his presence and voice are warm and inviting.

Nov 30 ($20/$25) 25th Anniversary Show

Contagious joyful exuberance makes Terri a real favorite. Compassion, love for friends and family, and her spiritual quest are at home in Terri's folk-pop-bluegrass and jazz, all delivered in true-hearted vocals and down-home persona. String guru Lloyd Maines joins for this great show.

Terri Hendrix

terrihendrix.com

Brooks Williams

brookswilliams.com

World renowned master of Delta roots blues, Hans also addresses social/environmental issues in modern folk songs. His slide & fingerpicking virtuosity surpasses every other player we've seen. Hans' resonate bass voice and boot stomps put a punch in his groove intensive performances

Hans Theessink

theessink.com

Nov 30 ($20/$25) 25th Anniversary Show

Calvin's has loved Sara since we met 20 years ago. We admire her dedication to concerns championed in her songs of the human condition and devotion to love. Sara's generous spirit and dynamic performances inspire meaningful social action, introspection, dancing feet and big smiles!

Sara Hickman

sarahickman.com

Tracy Grammer

tracygrammer.com

Radiating joy while performing with a soulful and soaring bigger-than-life voice, Ruthie's down home gospel roots 'n' blues originals are given the power of a Texas tornado! Since her first performance here in 2000, Ruthie has reached national stardom status. Catch her while you can.

Ruthie Foster

ruthiefoster.com

Dec 07 ($12/$15)

Kim & Reggie Harris

Storytellers, educators, interpreters of history and cultural advocates, Kim & Reggie apply their folk, gospel and jazz music to this cross cultural celebration of the common themes which mark the traditions of Christmas, Chanukah, Kwanzaa and Solstice: Love, kindness, unity, new beginnings, respect for nature, the quest for freedom, purpose and creativity and the changing of the seasons. Come get into the spirit!

kimandreggie.com

Opening:

Daniel Makins

Great melodies, smart lyrics, smooth singing.

Dec 14

Jeff & Vida

With musical roots in Appalachian bluegrass and old school country, this duo define the Americana genre. Their heartfelt lyrics are wrapped in tight vocal harmonies and the honest twang in Vida's powerful compelling singing has a core bluesiness, driven by Jeff's nimble fingerpicked guitar, mandolin and banjo.

jeffandvida.com

Opening:

Lisa Curl

Big voice on dynamic folk-rock.

Autumn, 2007

Tom Prasada-Rao first brought his unique groove of folk and R&B funk to us about 12 years ago. What a blast! Cary Cooper made her sweet folk-pop debut here in 2001. Now these award winning songwriters are one of the hottest acts around and we're honored with their return.
